

Vulnerable and Endangered Languages in Europe (VELE2024) Conference 2-4 October, 2024 University of Belgrade, Faculty of Philology Studentski trg 3, Belgrade
2 OCTOBER (Wednesday)
13:00-14:00	Registration of the participants (Main Hall)
14:00-14:30	Opening of the conference (Auditorium 11)
14:30-15:30	Cocktail (Meeting Hall, 1 st floor)
*All plenary lectures and sessions will take place in the Conference Room on the 1st floor.
15:30-16:30	Plenary lecture I (Chair: Annemarie Sorescu-Marinković) Tomasz Wicherkiewicz: Europe's Endangered, Regional, Collateral, Contested Languages vs. Communities and Linguists Entangled in Revitalisations, Regionalisations, Ausbaisations, etc.
16:30-17:00	Coffee break
17:00-18:30	Session I (Chair: Mirjana Mirić)
17:00-17:30	Valentina Sokolovska, Dušan Vlajić: Sampling within the project "Vulnerable languages and linguistic varieties in Serbia"
17:30-18:00	Eva Duran Eppler: The RISE UP Horizon Europe Project: a focus on cross-border aspects of Aromanian
18:00-18:30	Maciej Mętrak: Ethnolinguistic vitality survey of selected collateral languages in Poland
3 OCTOBER (Thursday)
10:00-11:00	Plenary lecture II (Chair: Svetlana Ćirković) Yaron Matras: What is multilingualism? A critical reflection on pluralism, disadvantaged languages and social justice
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-13:30	Session II (Chair: Maja Miličević Petrović)
11:30-12:00	Annamaria Chilà: Greek and Romance in contact in Southern Italy: how many types of bilingualism?
12:00-12:30	Marko Simonović: Stable variation and language change in written Fiuman
12:30-13:00	Mirjana Mirić: When two Romani dialects meet: consequences for the vulnerability of Romani in the Belgrade suburb of Batajnica
13:00-13:30	Anđela Redžić: Banat Bulgarian Vulnerability in Serbia
13:30-15:00	Lunch break

15:00-17:00	Session III (Chair: Marko Simonović)
15:00-15:30	Petar Radosavljević, Robert Doričić: Speaking a severely endangered language: Istro-Romanian (Vlaški and Žejanski) language biographies
15:30-16:00	Pavel Falaleev, Rossella Montibeler, Marija Runić: Štivoroto: A lost story of a language loss
16:00-16:30	Alberto Giudici: Istriot, Istro-Romance or Istrian? The southern varieties of Istria and their vitality
16:30-17:00	Mirjana Ćorković: Plurilingual Identities of the Aromanian Community in Serbia: The Changing Place of Aromanian within the Language Repertoire
17:00-17:30	Coffee break
17:30-19:00	Session IV (Chair: Stefana Paunović Rodić)
17:30-18:00	Andrzej Źak: Language ideologies around the standardization: case studies of Kashubian and Podlachian
18:00-18:30	Dalibor Sokolović: Identification of social actors in minority language standardisation – Rusyn and Banat Bulgarian in Vojvodina
18:30-19:00	Annemarie Sorescu-Marinković: Vlachs and Vlach in Eastern Serbia: a long-lasting asymmetry between ethnicity and mother tongue
4 OCTOBER (Friday)
10:00-11:00	Plenary lecture III (Chair: Annemarie Sorescu-Marinković) Giustina Selvelli: Endangered languages and environmental degradation among minority communities in Europe: an ecological perspective
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-13:30	Session V (Chair: Mirjana Ćorković)
11:30-12:00	Ivana Davitkov: National Minority Languages in the Education System (On the Example of the Bulgarians in Serbia)
12:00-12:30	Sabina Zorčić: Roma Children in the Slovene Education system and their Language Competence
12:30-13:00	Ivana Ivanić: Innovative pedagogical approaches for the preservation and revitalization of the Aromanian dialect in Serbia: A case study
13:00-13:30	Saška Jovanovska: The importance of mother tongue learning
13:30-15:00	Lunch break
15:00-16:30	Session VI (Chair: Giustina Selvelli)
15:00-15:30	Svetlana Ćirković: The Media in Romani in Serbia: Analysis of the Applied Sociolinguistic Questionnaire in Romani Communities
15:30-16:00	Monica Huțanu: Dictionaries in Vlach Romanian: Documenting the language from within
16:00-16:30	Anita Ćović: Participant observation in the context of vulnerable languages: Reflections on the researcher's active involvement as part of the community

16:30-17:00	Coffee break
17:00-18:30	Session VII (Chair: Dalibor Sokolović)
17:00-17:30	Danica Glišić: The use of Rusyn language among bi-/multilingual speakers of the Ruthenian community in Vojvodina, Serbia, in inner speech
17:30-18:00	Stefana Paunović Rodić: Correlations between language attitudes and linguistic experience and behavior of members of the Ruthenian community in Vojvodina
18:00-18:30	Dušan Vlajić, Anđela Redžić, Mirjana Mirić: Do younger speakers use minority languages less frequently? The pilot study of language use among linguistic minority communities in Serbia
18:30	Closing of the conference